computergate

A GLOBAL INDEPENDENT SERVICE PROVIDER

Warehousing & Logistics

We provide a range of specialised services for computer parts

Providing time-critical replacement after sales parts is an essential part of servicing busines and industry. Computergate's logistics services can be tailored to your business' budget and timeframes to support you in providing advance replacement for high-value, complex products such as enterprise servers. storage and networking products through to high usage fast replacement parts.

Our Computergate Service Centers have the warehousing and distribution capabilities as well as the expertise and delivery network to provide specialist storage, pick, pack and RMA services. We offer storage, inventory management and subsequent delivery of repalcement spare parts within your critical timeframes.

Customised Logistics Services

Inventory management and distribution can also be handled by Computergate, ensuring your clients have the required parts as needed and can order and receive necessary items quickly. No one needs to wait long for accessories or replacement parts. Deliveries of spare parts can be made quickly to meet the clients SLA at the customer's nominated location, because the inventory can be geographically positioned as close as possible to your clients.

Specialised Solutions for Moving IT & Sensitive Technology

moving large and sensitive IT and specialised technology requires a careful logistics solution. Computergate's No Limits philosphy means we have the experience and equipment to safely transport your goods to any destination. We assist with simple moves across town, or can coordinate the delivery of multiple units interstate and worldwide.

CONTACT US

10/20 Duerdin Street, Clayton, Victoria, 3168

www.computergate.services 1300 137 585

support@computergate.services

TOGETHER LET'S CHANGE THE WAY WE SERVICE THE WORLD